No. 32.—The following by-law No. 26, which the Madras Port Trust Board has framed under sections 85 and 87 of the Madras Port Trust Act, 1905 (21 of 1905), as amended by the Madras Port Trust Amendment Act II of 1914, and submitted for the approval of Government under section 76 of the said Act, is published for information:—

26. Special rules for regulation of traffic in Springharbour basin and in the timber pond:—

(a) A boat or the barge moored with traffic, or having heavy obstructions in either corner of the basin, will be liable to entrance therefrom, at the Deputy Port Commissioner's direction.

(b) If a boat lies in the basin and in the opinion of the Deputy Commissioner it is liable to such damage, the Trust thereof must at once, when called upon to do so, remove her to some place in which she will be least damaged by the Deputy Commissioner.

(c) Empty boats and barges, if not securely moored as to prevent their breaking loose in the basin whenever the condition of the weather, will be liable to be moved by the Deputy Commissioner who will be entitled to recover the cost thereof from the owner in the event of such breaking, and, pending such recovery, the offending boat will not be allowed to ply in the harbour or in stream in the basin. Owners of empty barges will be liable for all damage done through their lights or boats breaking apart.

(d) All lighters capable of passing beneath the bridge leading to the timber pond, after three hours for which custom have been specially allowed, must go into the timber pond where ordered to do so by the Deputy Commissioner.

(e) A small boat, if not lashed and removed out of the way within twenty-four hours of notice to do so being served as hereinafter, will be liable either to be sold as wreck or to be removed by the Deputy Commissioner and the cost of such removal will be recoverable from the owner, by the action of the Trust of necessity.

(f) No barge on the danger signal remains berthed at the harbour Light No. 5, the tidal and one pass of all craft in the basin and timber pond, and owners are bound, and the tidal of each boat must see that it is properly made fast and, in the event of no breaking loose, must drag or anchor or take such steps as will prevent damage to the craft or to other craft.

(g) Should the registered under or over in charge of a barge be employed below a magistrate of a branch of any of the regulations under rule 26, he will be liable to a fine of Rs. 10 for each such offence. Failing payment of such fine as the magistrate may impose the boat concerned will not be allowed to use the boat basin or to ply for hire.

2. The present by-law No. 26 will become by-law No. 27.

En. No.—

RULES UNDER THE INCOME-TAX ACT, 1913.

In exercise of the powers delegated to him by the Governor-General in Council under section 43, subsection (1), of Act VII of 1913, the Secretary-General in Council is pleased to prescribe the following rules to carry into effect the purposes of the aforesaid Act:—

1. Any claim under section 5, subsection (2), clause (1) of the Act to exemption from the levy of the tax of the collector on, or on behalf of, land, trade or other legal obligation for religious or charitable purposes within the meaning of this clause and applied to those purposes must be supported by a certificate from the District Collector which shall be in form A hereto appended.

2. In making for returns of employees from private employers under section 24, subsection (1) of the Act, the Collector may cause notices requiring them to make when submitting the returns whether they are willing to enter into an agreement under section 8 (1) to collect the tax due from the persons included in the return and to forward the amount to the Collector at the addresses prescribed in rule 3 below. The person, making the return, may subscribe to the return his assent to the above proposal.

3. No agreement entered into between a Collector and a private employer under section 4, subsection (1) of the Act, shall be subject to the following conditions:—

(a) The employer shall for the benefit of assistance be allowed a remuneration which shall be fixed by the Collector of the district with reference to the circumstances of each case but shall not exceed in any case 5 per cent of the salaries.

(b) The tax due to Government shall be deducted by the private employer from any income chargeable under the head "salaries" as such payment is made and the amount deducted shall be submitted for the benefit of collection as may be agreed upon shall be retained within a week by the Collector or other officer authorised by him to receive it together with a statement showing the names of the persons from whom the tax has been collected and the further particulars prescribed in rule 3 below.

4. The allowance in respect of income property income on account of collection charges under section 5, subsection (vi) of the Act, is limited to 5 per cent of the gross value of the income property.

5. No claim to exemption preferred under section 23 (2) of the Act as the portion of the income taxable under the head "salaries" which is paid as a pension to an employee company or as a payment of a contract for a deferred annuity or as a contribution to a provident fund shall be admissible if the claim is made after the expiration of six months from the last day of the financial year in which the pension was paid.

6. When a deduction is made from any income liable to assessment on account of a payment made to an insurance company or to a trust or a contract for a deferred annuity or as a contribution to a provident fund the sum deducted shall, if the payment has been made in sterling, be the actual cost of annuities; and if the amount is payable in some other currency, the equivalent in value of the amount of the pension calculated at the official rate of exchange for the year in which the deduction is made.

7. A deduction such as is mentioned in the preceding rule may be supported either—

(1) by the original receipt of the insurance company or provident fund; or
(2) by the certificate of deduction claimed by a servant of the Government or of a local authority; or by a copy of the same presented together with the original to the officer who pays the salaries and amounts by that officer who should also such certificate return the original; or

(3) by a duplicate receipt given by the insurance company or provident fund; or
(4) by a certificate of (a) most given by the insurance company or provident fund, in a form (1), (2) and (3) the receipt or certificate will be returned as soon as the first of payment is received in any form of value.

When the Collector is satisfied that one of the above prescribed documents can be produced without an amount of delay, expense or inconvenience which under the circumstances of the case would be unreasonable, he may accept such other proof of payment of the pension as he may deem sufficient.

8. The amounts deducted on account of the tax free income chargeable under the head "salaries" under section 15, subsection (2) of the Act, shall be paid to the credit of the Government of India within six weeks from the date of payment of such "salaries." The payment to the credit of the Government shall be made by remitting the amount to the Collector with a statement giving the following particulars for each person from whom the tax has been collected:—

- (1) Name.
- (2) The period for which the salary has been paid.
- (3) The amount of the salary paid.

- (4) The amount of tax collected.
- (5) The amount of commission, if any, deducted.
- (6) The balance retained to the Collector.

9. The return of receipts required by section 16 of the Act shall be in form B appended hereto.

The returns relating to Government offices required by section 16 of the Act shall be furnished by the establishments concerned.

(1) The Government-General Secretariat, gazetted officers and others who draw their pay in the Presidency town of Madras from the said office on separate bills, and also for all pensioners and gratuitists who draw their pensions and gratuities from the said office in Madras.

(2) Treasury Officers for all gazetted officers and others who draw their pay from treasuries on separate bills, and also for all pensioners and gratuitists who draw their pensions and gratuities from treasuries.

(3) The said office and schools, Colleges, or other Government institutions, for all non-gazetted officers whose pay is drawn on establishment bills.

(4) Postal Department for themselves and their establishments and also for all gazetted officers and others who draw their pay on separate bills from the Post office under their jurisdiction; heads of Telegraphic offices (other than gazetted Post and Telegraphic offices) for themselves and their establishments and also for gazetted officers and others who draw their pay on separate bills from their offices; Superintendents of Telegraphs and Deputy Superintendents of Stamps for themselves and their establishments and also for all gazetted officers and others who draw their pay on separate bills from their offices.

(5) Department of Military Supplies (including Divisional Military Supply, Madras, Field and War Commissariat) for all Military employees under their control.

(7) Chief Engineers of Armies or Chief Architects of the Railways concerned for all Railway employees under their control.

(8) In the case of Government not covered by the above, such persons as the Collector may call upon to make the return.

10.—(a) In this rule, the terms "treasuries" and "Treasury offices" include sub-treasuries and such a partial treasuries and the officers in charge of those treasuries respectively.

(b) The return should contain complete information as to the total salary drawn by an officer during the whole year. If therefore an officer has been transferred from another district, the Treasury office by whom the officer happens to be paid at the time of issue of the return, should ascertain from the other Treasury offices concerned the total salary drawn from the beginning of the year to the date of his transfer and include it in his return.

(c) Those gazetted officers serving in the Madras who draw part of their salary in Madras under article 6 of the Civil Service Code, should be included in the return furnished by the Treasury office or the Forest Districting officer, who should include in the return the portion of the salary drawn in Madras.

(d) The term "others who draw their pay on separate bills" used in rules (1) and (2), signifies those non-gazetted officers specified in Appendix A to the Madras Treasury Manual, Volume II, and other officers who draw pay on separate bills, either on salary or establishment bill forms, even though the measurement of the immediate head of the department is required in some cases. In the case of those non-gazetted heads of offices, however, who are entitled to draw bills and who include the pay of their establishments also in their own bills, the return so far as the head of the office is concerned, should be furnished by the Assistant-Chief or the Treasury officer.

11. The amount of all persons in receipt of salaries of not less than Rs. 500 per annum shall be included in the return furnished under section 16.

12. The return of income to be furnished by companies under section 17 (1) of the Act shall be in form "C" hereto appended and the statements contained in the return shall be verified in the manner indicated at the foot of the form.

13. The return of income to be called for from persons other than companies under section 17 (2) of the Act shall be in form D hereto appended and the statements contained in the return shall be verified in the manner indicated at the foot of the form.

14. When statements of income prepared by registered chartered, incorporated or certified accountants are filed by companies, separate scrutiny of the accounts' books will be dispensed with, unless there are special reasons which the Collector's opinion render such scrutiny desirable.

15. Members of the undermentioned institutions are approved for income-tax purposes:

- (1) The Institute of Chartered Accountants of England and Wales.
- (2) The Society of Incorporated Accountants and Auditors.
- (3) The Society of Accountants in Edinburgh.
- (4) The Institute of Accountants and Actuaries in Glasgow.
- (5) The Society of Accountants in Aberdeen.
- (6) The Institute of Chartered Accountants in Ireland.

16. (a) Companies who are notified under the Indian Companies Act and who wish to be approved for income-tax purposes should apply to the Secretary, Board of Revenue, Separate Revenue, Madras. Their applications will be considered by a committee consisting of

- (1) The Commissioner of Salt, Alkali and Separate Revenue.
- (2) The Collector of Madras.
- (3) The Registrar of Joint Stock Companies.
- (4) The Chairman, Madras Chamber of Commerce.
- (5) The President, Southern India Chamber of Commerce. The decision of the committee will be final.

(b) Approval of an accountant under this rule or rule 14 is liable to revocation in any case by a note of the committee referred to above.

17. Applications approved for income-tax purposes shall be issued in conformity with the Income-tax law and rules and in accordance with particulars as the Commissioner of Salt, Alkali and Separate Revenue may require.

17. The notice to be served on assessors under section 18, sub-section (3) of the Act shall be in form E.

18. The notice of assessment or adjustment to be served on persons assessed under section 20 of the Act shall be in form F.

The amount assessed under this Act may be paid in two equal instalments, the first on the expiry of sixty days from the date of service of the assessment or adjustment notice. The second on the expiry of sixty days from the date on which the first instalment becomes due. If, however, a person against the assessment or adjustment has been admitted the Collector may, in his discretion, treat the assessors as not being in default in respect of the payment of the tax till orders on the petition have been issued. In case of default in the payment of the first instalment the whole amount of the assessment or balance due on adjustment shall become immediately recoverable.

19. Provisions against assessments or adjustments under section 21, sub-section (1) of the Act shall be deemed to be the order of, and shall require the information provided for, in form G and shall be verified in the manner required by law for the verification of oaths. A petition which does not contain a clear statement of the amount on which the petitioner claims to be assessed or to have his assessment adjusted, or, as aforesaid, shall be liable, on summary application. The notice of assessment or adjustment served under section 20 of the Act and a copy of the Collector's order under section 22 (1) or section 18 of the Act shall accompany the petition.

20. The Collector or the Commissioner shall satisfy to the assessors the purpose of any order passed by him under sections 19, 20, 21 or 22 of the Act.

21. The notice to an employer calling for a return of employees under section 23, sub-section (2) of the Act shall be in form H. The return shall be in form I. The return of all persons in receipt of salaries of more than Rs. 600 per annum shall be included in the return.

22. The following provisions shall be observed in the levy of penalties under section 24 (1) for default in payment of tax as the law directs—

(a) In case of failure to pay any instalment, a notice in form I shall be issued to the assessors imposing a penalty of one per cent of the tax due and warning the assessors that the whole amount due is not paid within 30 days a second penalty ten per cent of the amount of the first will be imposed.

(b) In any case in which penalties default is made the assessing officer will call upon the assessors in the same way there should not be imposed such penalty and respecting the amount of the tax to be paid down.

(c) The Collector or the district may amend or reduce any penalty imposed by himself or by any officer subordinate to him.

23. Any person claiming refund of income-tax deducted from salaries shall present to the Collector an application in form J and a statement showing the amounts deducted from his salary under the head of salaries. The Collector may make such inquiries as he may deem necessary as to the total amount of the applicant and shall, if he is satisfied that the applicant is entitled to any refund, pay or cause to be paid in cash of such sum as may be due.

24. The sum or any security of the Government of India or a debenture or other security for money issued by or on behalf of a local authority or company claiming a refund under section 23 of the Act shall present to the Collector (a) an application in form J declaring truly how his total income in the previous year with the deduction below the form duly signed before the Collector or attested by a Justice of the Peace or a Magistrate and (b) a statement in form K showing details of the salaries paid by him.

25. On receipt of the application and the statement the Collector may, after making such inquiries as he may deem necessary as to the total income of the applicant, issue a certificate of refund in form L, if he is satisfied that the applicant is liable to tax at a rate then one year in the future or at a rate to be fixed.

26. If a claim for refund is made within one year from the end of the year to which the claim relates, the person empowered to pay the refund at the rate of assessment of the Government of India and the Collector in other cases shall, on production of the certificate of refund, pay or authorize payment in cash of such refund as may be due.

27. In the case of dividends paid out of the profits of a company or of the profits of a firm divided between the partners, the person claiming a refund shall present to the Collector an application in form J duly signed or attested as to rate of interest and shall forward the supporting documents, as required of the registered deed of partnership, or other proof showing the nature of shares he holds in the company, or the share he holds in the firm, and the total amount of the dividend or profits paid to him including the income-tax deducted therefrom. The Collector may make such inquiries as he may deem necessary as to the total income of the applicant and if he is satisfied that the applicant is entitled to any refund provided that the company or firm has paid the tax due on his profits, he shall pay or authorize payment in cash of such refund as may be due.

28. (a) No refund shall be admissible on dividends not paid out of the taxable profits of a company or on interest of a loan.

(b) Refunds may be limited by such of the order of the applicant.

29. (a) A refund shall not be paid except at the place where the tax in respect of which the refund is claimed has been received.

(b) If the person claiming the refund is not a resident of the place where the tax has been received, he may send the declaration in form J accompanied by the statement in form K, or the dividend warrant or other proof referred to in rule 27 to the Collector of the place where he holds or carries on his business and apply for a certificate in form L for submission to the officer empowered to grant the refund and, on receipt of such certificate the officer shall proceed to issue the refund in the above rule.

30. When a declaration of income in form J has been received the Collector may issue a certificate in form L or M at any time during the financial year in which such declaration has been received without waiting for a fresh declaration of income.

31. (a) Against the order of a Collector or an application for refund a petition shall lie to the Commissioner.

(b) The petition shall ordinarily be presented within thirty days of receipt of the order of the Collector; but the Commissioner may receive a petition after the expiration of that period if he is satisfied that the petitioner had sufficient cause for not presenting it within that period.

32. If the application for refund is himself the Collector competent to sanction the refund the application for refund shall be made to the next higher authority.

22. (5) In the case of life assurance companies whose profits are periodically ascertained by actuarial valuations, the taxable income shall be determined with reference to the average and profits disclosed by the last preceding valuation.

Provided that any debentures made from the gross income in settling of the actuarial valuations which are not allowable for the purpose of income-tax assessment shall be added to the net profits disclosed by the valuation.

This clause shall apply also to the determination of the taxable income derived from the assets and capital redemption business of life assurance companies, the profits of which can be ascertained from the results of an actuarial valuation.

(6) If there has been no periodical actuarial valuation or if the last valuation took place more than five years previous to the year in which the assessment falls to be made, the taxable income shall be determined with reference to the interest, dividends and rents received by the companies during the previous year.

(7) In the case of insurance companies other than life assurance companies the taxable income in any year shall be the profits calculated for the year subject to the provisions of the following clause.

(a) Amounts actually credited by an insurance company other than a life insurance company in the ordinary accounts of its business for the previous year or any fund established for the sole purpose of insuring a source to meet outstanding or anticipated liabilities to policy holders (including women risk of occupational losses) and amounts actually credited by an insurance company of any kind in the ordinary accounts of its business for the year of assessment to its investment reserves fund for the purpose of meeting depreciation in the value of investments shall be treated as expenditures incurred solely for the purpose of ascertaining the profits of the business in determining the taxable income of the insurance company in that year.

(b) The taxable income of companies carrying on trading society or assessment business shall be taken at fifteen per cent of the previous income in the previous year. Where a non-trading company carries on trading society or assessment business in India the assessment shall be fifteen per cent of the Indian previous income.

(c) This rule shall apply only to the determination of taxable income from different classes of insurance business. The actual assessment of an insurance company carrying on more than one class of business shall, in accordance with the Act, be determined as to the relevant account by the appropriate taxable income from all the classes of business which it carries on.

23. (1) Applications for composition in respect of the income on which the tax will be assessed shall be sent in writing to the Collector before the last day and before the tax for the year is assessed by the Collector. But a Collector may accept an application after that day if he is satisfied that the applicant had sufficient cause for not presenting it within that time.

(2) The party corresponding should execute an agreement within one month from the date on which the amount of composition is notified to him. If he fails to execute the agreement within the above period, the Collector may proceed to assess him, as if an application for composition had been received.

(3) Agreements for composition shall be in form N or so near thereto as may be, and shall be for a period of not more than three years. The agreement shall be made in two parts one of each part executed by the corresponding party remaining with the Collector, and the other part signed by the Collector remaining with the corresponding party.

(4) No agreement for composition shall be made with companies or shall be entered into in respect of any income of less than Rs. 2,500 or of any income or portion of any income which is liable to taxation under the head of salaries or interest on securities.

(5) In order to arrive at the amount of the applicant's income for the period in respect of which the application is made, the Collector should estimate income as to the probability of a future income or decrease in the applicant's income. The compositioned income shall not be less than what is estimated as the average income for the period.

(6) If the party who has compositioned dies or becomes bankrupt or insolvent or, in the case of a firm, gets into liquidation or voluntarily places his business before the expiration of the period comprised in the agreement, the agreement shall become void from the 1st day of March next after such death, bankruptcy, insolvency or other proceeding, save and except as to any portion of the tax on the income compositioned which before the said day shall have become payable and shall then be repaid.

(7) Fraud on the part of the party corresponding in stating the income or otherwise shall render the agreement null and void.

24. Entry charges the duty paid or recovered under section 45 of the Act shall be in form O.

25. The power of the Local Government to declare under section 47 of the Act which of several places of business shall be deemed to be the principal place of business for the purposes of the Act are hereby delegated to the Board of Revenue.

26. An assessee who carries on business in several places is assessable in accordance with the Collector in the district in which the principal place of business of the assessee is situated.

Ordinarily the principal place of business shall be understood to mean the place at which the person directing any company or firm does his business, or the registered or head office where the general books and accounts for all branches are kept and compiled.

27. When a Collector learns that an assessee having his principal place of business in his District has a place of business in another district he shall communicate with the Collector in the latter district with a view to obtaining a complete account of the actual profits or income of the company, firm or person, and the Collector in the latter district may receive the enquiry provided for by section 16 of the Act. The Collector in the district in which the principal place of business is situated shall not require the production of accounts or documents relating to the branch business of assessee in other districts. The final assessment, however, shall be made by him and he shall have full power to deal with the reports made by other Collectors and to alter and amend their estimates in making his final assessment. Full reasons should, however, always be recorded when the estimate of the Collector in another district is not accepted.

The income to be returned is the total income as shown by the accounts during either the twelve calendar months ending on the 31st March 19 or if the accounts have been made up within the twelve calendar months ending on the 31st March 19, in respect of a year ending on any other day than the 31st March 19. Care at year's end the twelve calendar months ending on the day on which the accounts have been made up. INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PREPARATION OF THE RETURN IN FORM (III).

(1) Submission of return of income.—The return should be delivered to the Collector as soon as possible. The maximum limit of time allowed is thirty days.

(2) Previous year.—The income shown in the return should be that of the calendar, financial, lunar or other year for which the accounts were last made up for the owner's own purposes provided that such year was a year of twelve full calendar months and that the last day of such year fell within the twelve calendar months ending 31st March 19. In all other cases it should be that of the year ending 31st March 19.

(3) Name, designation, residence.—The ordinary designation of the person should be entered in the return. If the person making the return has several places of business the principal place of business should be specified and all other places should be shown in the space provided or if this is not sufficient on a sheet attached. In the case of a person carrying on business under any name or names other than his own, such other name or names should be entered in the return.

(4) Status of partners.—Any person making a return of income which has accrued in partnership with others is bound by section 16 (2) of the Act to furnish the names of all his partners and their addresses.

(5) The following are liable to assessment to income-tax. All persons ('persons' include a firm and a Hindu undivided family), resident in British India, and persons not resident in British India who may be deemed to be liable in respect of any class of income, whose income is Rs. 1,000 or upwards.

(6) Salary, wages, etc.—In column 3 of the return should be shown the total gross income without deduction of the income-tax paid, provided that subscriptions or any other such payments. An allowance for house-rent or the value of rent-free quarters is allowable to income-tax and should be returned under the above heading. Any portion of the salary paid outside British India for services in British India must be included in the return.

(7) Dividends and interest on securities.—In column 3 of the return the gross amount of the dividends or interest should be shown and in column 5 the amount of income-tax collected at source, if any.

(8) Professional earnings.—Income under this heading should be computed after making allowance for any expenditure incurred solely for the purposes of the profession, provided that no allowance may be made on account of expenditure of the nature of capital or personal expenditure. Full particulars should be given of all disbursements made from the gross income.

(9) Interest on mortgage, loan, etc.—The interest which accrues in the year is often not actually paid in it, but is added to the capital and itself bears interest. In such cases the interest that accrues or falls due in the year should be included in the income returned under this head.

(10) House property.—If house property is entered in the municipal rolls or revenue registers under any name other than the name of the owner, such name or names should be clearly specified in the form provided.

The beneficial annual value of a house is the full market value of which the house could be let from year to year irrespective of any charges by way of municipal rates or taxes thereon. It therefore differs from the actual annual rent payable on a long term lease, or the actual rent payable on a yearly lease under a privileged lease, or with tenant's liability to pay owner's rates or taxes. The following allowances are allowable:—

- (i) Insurance premium, less discount, if any.
- (ii) Interest paid on mortgages.
- (iii) Ground rent.
- (iv) Land revenue.
- (v) Vacancies (allowance for unoccupied property).
- (vi) Collection charges.
- (vii) Where the property is in the possession of the owner, or where it is let to a tenant and the owner has undertaken to bear the cost of repairs, it may be set off against the annual value of the property, where the property is in the occupation of a tenant who has undertaken to bear the cost of repairs, the difference between such value and the rent paid by the tenant up to but not exceeding one-fourth of such value.

In the case of buildings occupied for business purposes, attention is invited to section 5 (5) of the Act.

(11) Income from estates, British India.—Income from sources outside British India which has accrued in British India including dividends, pensions and income from agricultural land not paying land revenue to the British Government is liable to assessment and should be reported in the return under head No. 7.

(12) Business, Trade, Commerce, etc.—In computing the income returnable no deduction may be made for any of the following:—

- (a) Interest on capital of the owner or owners;
- (b) Payments or drawings in respect of personal expenditure;
- (c) Bad debts not actually written off;
- (d) Amounts set off out of the profits of the year on account of ascertained losses of previous years;
- (e) Payments made to form an insurance fund against future losses;
- (f) Payment on account of income-tax, super-tax or profession-tax;
- (g) Taxes expended on charity or goodwill;
- (h) Taxes given by way of commission (not in the regular course of business);

No. 276.—The following promotions in the Madras Customs Service are ordered:—

Mr. Herbert Alfred Farns, fourth-grade Appraiser, to act as third-grade Appraiser and Mr. R. Hest granted privilege leave as usual further action.

Mr. Ernest Edward Storer, 5th grade Appraiser, to act as fourth-grade Appraiser and Mr. H. A. Davis.

M. R. My. Kothanahally, Revenue Peon, Pudukottah Office, to act as 5th-grade Appraiser and Mr. R. A. Davis.

NOTIFICATIONS.

Government, May 27, 1918.

No. 219.—His Excellency the Governor in Council declares under the provisions of section 24 of the Madras Forest Act of 1907, that the area specified below which was declared to be reserved forests under section 15 of the Act in notification No. 101, dated 30th October 1909, published on page 441 of Part I of the Part of G. O. Gazette, dated 20th November 1909, shall cease to be reserved forest with effect from 1st September 1918:—

Reservations.

Name of reserve or portion of reserve to be reserved.	District.	Taluk.	Village.	Area.	Description.
Portion of Bundarri reserved forest.	Nellore.	Kavali.	Kotigall.	40 54 10	North and east.—From a point on the western boundary of S. No. 218, 144 chains north of the settlement street the line runs straight westward to the southern corner of S. No. 145 (Vellacheri taluk).

South.—Thence along the northern boundary of S. No. 219 to the north-west corner of S. No. 217.

East.—Thence along the western boundary of S. No. 216 to the starting point at a distance of 144 chains.

East exception.—The area set aside for growth and use north of the settlement street of the Vellacheri taluk.

Reason for dropping reserve.—Owing to wrong demarcation the area in question was not included in the reserve limits—the area having not been reserved. The forest growth has increased and it is proposed to adapt the demarcated line to the boundary of the reserve.

No. 250.—His Excellency the Governor in Council notifies, under the provisions of section 4 of the Madras Forest Act of 1907, that it is proposed to incorporate the available boundaries of which are described in the schedule below reserved forest under the Act:—

of 114 chains up to the settlement street.

East and south.—Thence the boundary runs due north-south along the western boundary of S. No. 216 to a distance of 144 chains.

North.—Thence the boundary runs in a straight line north by east to the starting point at a distance of 144 chains.

2. His Excellency the Governor in Council, under clause (4) of the same section of the Act, appoints the Revenue District Officer, Kavali, for the time being, to be Forest Conservator, and to exercise the powers and discharge the duties, nature and extent of any rights claimed, by or through him, in and over the land comprised within the boundaries mentioned above as of any alleged rights in regard to any forest produce on such land, and (3) to deal with such claims in the manner provided in chapter II of the Act. His Excellency the Governor in Council, under section 4 of the Act, appoints the District Forest Officer, Nellore, for the time being, to attend on behalf of Government during the vacancy.

3. Under the authority vested in him by section 14 of the Act, His Excellency the Governor in Council appoints the Collector of Nellore, for the time being, to hear appeals from orders passed by the Forest Conservator under sections 11, 12 and 13 of the same Act.

METEOROLOGICAL RESULTS

From the Marine Observatory, Monterey

The Standard Barometer and Thermometers are read at 8 a.m., 12 m., 4 p.m., and 8 p.m., and the daily means are obtained by the application of hourly corrections, deduced from twenty years' observations. The centers of the thermometry in twenty-two can have the level of the sea, and the corrections of the Baltic fathens is the feet from the ground. The wind, was not general, neither measured for the vessel Civil Day—down at night in daylight.

The total quantity of ice collected since January 1st in 1877 within the straits due for the same period before 42 miles.
